

2017
BUFFALO BOMA AWARDS
CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Greater Buffalo BOMA will be hosting the 2017 BOMA Awards Luncheon on Tuesday, October 17th. These awards honor individuals and companies who exemplify outstanding leadership, achievement and professionalism in the real estate industry. We are now accepting nominations for the 2017 awards. Nominees do not have to be BOMA members (except for Member of the Year).

Property Management Employee of the Year

This property or facilities administrative staff member (property manager, sales or support staff) is recognized for best demonstrating the principles of BOMA in dealing with their clients and stakeholders.

Project of the Year – Team award

This award goes to the project (new or renovation) that has made the greatest impact on the Greater Buffalo real estate industry. The award will be shared by the owner, design team and general contractor.

Building Services Employee of the Year

This candidate (maintenance technician or engineer), services or maintains commercial properties for an owner or a third party vendor and has demonstrated commitment to deliver the highest level of professionalism and integrity.

Distinguished Service Award (Member of the Year)

This award goes to a Buffalo BOMA member (regular or allied) who has gone above and beyond in their efforts to support our association and our mission.

Vendor of the Year

This award goes to the vendor who has gone above and beyond in supporting a member of the Western New York real estate industry.

We welcome industry members to create your own category and submit a nomination. Security Employee of the Year, Green Project of the Year or Specialty Project of the Year are just a few examples. Remember – this event is about recognizing a deserving employee, company or facility!
