What Members Are Saying

"I have worked in the real estate management business for over a decade, and could validate that the job of a property manager is extremely challenging. One of the best resources I have for resolving issues that arise throughout the years is to contact colleagues I have met through BOMA.

Collectively, the Facility and Property Managers that are involved in BOMA have a tremendous amount of experience and knowledge; and I tap into this resource at every luncheon, board meeting, committee meeting, golf tournament, etc. This resource has tremendous value!"

Jeff O'Bannon
Director of Property Management
Ciminelli Real Estate Corporation

"National Fuel Resources, Inc. has enjoyed being a member of BOMA for years. BOMA has been a one stop source for the latest in property management insight and long-term business connections and its members share a one of a kind professional camaraderie. BOMA is one of those unique organizations that stays relevant to those who have been in business for years and also gives new members an energized introduction to the business world."

Catherine C. Wolf
Marketing Coordinator
National Fuel Resources, Inc.

"The contacts I have made; the relationships I have developed; and the resulting sales for our company have more than paid for my annual membership dues."

James D. Coleman
Sales Executive
Janitronics Facility Services

"Being a part of BOMA has allowed me to groom my people skills while absorbing many different points of views and solutions to every day issues. I have forged many relationships that have served me well in my Property Management career.

From an employer point of view, it is a training school of sorts. If a person involves themselves in the process of serving in positions on the Board of Directors, there is a progression of different posts available leading to serving as President of the organization. Each step along the way teaches responsibility, and knowledge is gained of different aspect of business involvement. This involvement bodes well for the employer as this involvement carries to all areas of employment. I would encourage all to consider getting involved. It is an experience you will keep with you for a long time."
