A portion of the proceeds to benefit Kevin Guest House

Founded in 1972, the Kevin Guest House was the nation's first hospital hospitality house, a "home away from home" to outpatients and caregivers of patients hospitalized or receiving outpatient therapy in a Buffalo area hospital.

The house has individual rooms and also offers four apartments dedicated to bone marrow transplant recipients and their families.

Kevin Guest House is a fully independent 501 (c) 3 non-profit organization and receives no financial support from any government entity. It thrives solely on donations, gifts, grants and fundraisers.
